

1-WARM UP CHAT 5 MINS

2-ENGAGEMENT WITH THE PHOTO

What do you see here?

Why does she hold a cup?

Why does she not drink it?

Is it too hot? is it too cold?

To direct them to concept of TOO HOT TOO COLD TOO X

second photo: now she drinks it.

Why does she drink it now? What's the difference and what's changed?

NOW THE TEA IS COLD ENOUGH!

3-VOCABULARY

CHALLENGING(adj)

ELICIT- when we have a hard, really tough situation or task, what do we say about this situation? we test ourselves with a ch_____ task

DRILL

CCQ if the thing we do is so easy to do, is it challenging? what if it tests us?

BOARD

CONCENTRATE(v)

ELICIT- when we do something important we must stay focused, right? what do we need then? what do we need to stay focused? can we call staying focused with another name?

DRILL

CCQ if I do the thing i do without effort and attention can we say that I am concentrated?

I give my hundred percent to it and now?

BOARD

3B-FOCUS QUESTION !!!

Did they go outside? NO

3C-DISTRIBUTE THE SHEETS

!!! Ask them to underline all too and enoughs in the text.

3D-GIVE THE TF QUESTIONS

3E-CORRECT THEM

4-GRAMMAR PART

MODEL SENTENCES

It was too cold to stay outside

Tom was old enough to go on the hike alone.

*ELICIT THE TENSE WRITE IT IF U DID NOT Too vs Enough

*ELICIT THE FUNCTION To talk about degree and result
WRITE IT!!!!

*ELICIT THE FORM WRITE IT!!!!

Structure	Example
S+Too + adjective +	It's too late for us to catch the train .
S+Adjective + enough	She's old enough to live alone.

DRILL THE SENTENCES

CCQ questions

Does "too" mean positive or negative results? → Negative

Does “enough” mean you can or can't do something? → Can

PRACTICE 1

1-DYNAMICS= PAIR

2-INSTRUCTIONS= Fill in the blanks with the correct option. Too or enough?

3-MODELING=I make one discussing it with myself

4-TIME= 10 MINS

5-I GIVE THE SHEETS

PRACTICE 2

1-DYNAMICS= PAIR

2-INSTRUCTIONS= Put words in the right order.

3-MODELING=I COMPLETE THE FIRST ONE

4-TIME= 10 MINS

5-I GIVE THE SHEETS

PRODUCTION

1-DYNAMICS= PAIR

2-INSTRUCTIONS= We have situations here. We wanted to do something like camping but we couldn't. Why? Discuss it with your partner. Use too or enough.

3-MODELING=I act in a camping situation. i cant go cus the weather is too cold etc etc

4-TIME= 10 MINUTES

5-I GIVE THE SHEETS

FILLER

SWITCH PHOTOS 5 MINUTES.

Last weekend, Sarah wanted to go hiking. However, it was too cold to stay outside for a long time. She didn't have enough warm clothes to keep her comfortable. Because of that, she decided to stay home and watch a movie instead. Her brother, Tom, was old enough to go on the hike alone, so he took the opportunity. He had enough experience to be safe during the trip. Tom said the weather was challenging, but he was prepared. Sarah promised to buy better clothes next time so she wouldn't be too cold again.

1. Sarah went hiking because the weather was warm.
2. Sarah didn't have enough warm clothes.
3. Tom was not old enough to go hiking alone.
4. Tom had enough experience for the hike.
5. Sarah plans to buy better clothes for the next hike.

Fill in the blanks with too or enough and the correct form

1. The box is _____ heavy to carry alone.
2. She isn't old _____ to drive a car yet.
3. The music was _____ loud to concentrate.
4. He was _____ tired to go to the party.
5. The cake wasn't sweet _____ to like it.
6. That jacket is not beautiful _____ to pay 1000 usd.
7. The soup is _____ hot to eat right now.
8. She's tall _____ to play basketball professionally.

Reorder the words

1-the bag / carry / too / to / heavy / is

2-early / catch / to / was / he / enough / plane / the

3-fast / too / was / car / the / control / to

4-enough / had / to / they / money / travel

5-enough / room / is / for / this / big / everyone

Situation: You want to join a local music band as a singer or musician. But the band leader thinks you're not ready yet.

Task: Discuss with a partner why you can't join the band right now. Use too / enough !

Situation: You found your dream job abroad, but you think you are not ready to go yet.

Task: Discuss with a partner why you can't go right now. Use too / enough !

Situation: You and your friend are planning a surprise birthday party for someone. But there are problems.

Task: Talk about what you can't do yet and why. Try to solve the problems together using too / enough structures.

Situation: You really want to go on vacation this summer, but you can't. Use too and enough to explain your reasons.

Task: Tell your partner all the reasons why your vacation plan is not possible this year using too / enough structures.

Situation: You and your friend opened a new restaurant, but it didn't succeed. Use too and enough to explain your reasons.

Task: Talk about the reasons why your restaurant failed. Use too and enough in your explanations.

Situation: You're looking for a flat to rent with your friend. You found one, but there are many issues.

Task: Talk about why you shouldn't rent this apartment using "too" and "enough" structures.

Situation: The school planned a trip to the mountains, but it got cancelled. Use too and enough to explain your reasons.

Task: Talk to a classmate about why the trip can't happen. Use too and enough to explain your reasons.

Situation: You've been working for many years, and you're thinking about retirement. But your friend/partner doesn't think you're ready yet. Use too and enough to explain your reasons.

Task: Talk about why you can't retire now. Use too and enough to explain your reasons.

True / False – Answer Key:

1. Sarah went hiking because the weather was warm.
 False – She didn't go hiking because it was too cold.
2. Sarah didn't have enough warm clothes.
 True – The text says she didn't have enough warm clothes.
3. Tom was not old enough to go hiking alone.
 False – He was old enough to go on the hike alone.
4. Tom had enough experience for the hike.
 True – The text says he had enough experience to be safe.
5. Sarah plans to buy better clothes for the next hike.
 True – She promised to buy better clothes next time.

Fill in the blanks – Answer Key:

1. The box is too heavy to carry alone.
2. She isn't old enough to drive a car yet.
3. The music was too loud to concentrate.
4. He was too tired to go to the party.
5. The cake wasn't sweet enough to like it.
6. This jacket is not beautiful enough to pay 1000 usd.
7. The soup is too hot to eat right now.
8. She's tall enough to play basketball professionally.

Reorder the words – Answer Key:

1. The bag is too heavy to carry. 6-I am not fast enough to play with them.
2. He was early enough to catch the plane. 7-
3. The car was too fast to control.
4. They had enough money to travel.
5. This room is big enough for everyone.